What are my obligations?

General (applicable to all sections)

- To take reasonable care to provide complete and accurate answers to questions we ask when taking out, renewing or making changes to your policy and use all reasonable efforts to maintain the amount insured at full value
- Advise us promptly of changes to the occupancy of the property or if you are entering into contract works estimated at more than £100,000
- You must tell us as soon as possible of any event which may result in a claim
- You must abide by the terms, provisions, conditions and clauses of the policy – failure to do so could affect your cover

Home Emergency

- You must be able to prove that your central heating boiler has been serviced during the 12 months prior to it breaking down
- You must contact the 24/7 Home Emergency helpline as soon as you can after the emergency arises and use the contractor chosen by us

When and how do I pay?

You can either pay for your policy in full or by instalments. Please contact Howden for further details.

When does the cover start and end?

The cover starts on the date shown on the policy schedule and lasts 12 months. We will send you notice when your policy is approaching renewal.

How do I cancel the contract?

You can cancel this policy by contacting your account handler by telephone, email or post within 14 days of receiving the policy. If you contact us in this time no charge will be made and we will refund any premium already paid.

If you want to cancel your policy after this period you are entitled to a refund of the premium paid less a proportionate deduction for the time we have provided cover. If you have already made a claim you will not receive any refund of premium.
